The Task Force is selling travel mugs: They are a stainless steel mug. They are 14 ounces each. Cost is $10 per mug (cash only). Both sides have the Geronimo crest. If you would like to purchase these, please e-mail your order to paulandkarenr@gci.net or you may call 770-4971.

We still have car decals for sale ! They are for either inside or outside of your windows. They are $5.00 set, they are the Operation Enduring Freedom and the Geronimo.

Well, it is that time of year, Volunteer Recognition!!

If you could please e-mail me at paulandkarenr@gci.net your volunteer hours (that you have not logged with another agencies) from April 2003-March 2004. The hours can be for anything that you have done (ex. Babysitting for a friend, making a meal, helping with a call out, baking for soldiers, helping with FRG, etc.) Your name will be given to ACS and you will receive an invitation to be recognized for all the help that you have provided!! I would like to take this time to THANK YOU for all that you do!!

Thank You to Kristen Coderre for heading up the sale of the HHC t-shirts!!

Thank You to Kimberly Keaveny for heading up the sales of the polar fleece!!

Thank You to Vesna Shedd's daughter Nadine for babysitting during our FRG meeting!

FYI:

29 March, 2004 is the last day to call for child care for the Deployment Brief and also you may call for OPTEMPO dates that are still available. Call Central Registration at 384-7483.

The Commissary will be closed on 21 April, 2004.
